On a mention being made, the case is taken up.
Shri P.S. Koshy, Counsel for the petitioner.
Shri U.N.S. Deo, Govt.Advocate for the State.
Shri Sunil Otwani, Counsel for the caveator.

Application for urgent hearing is allowed.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter relates to transfer of the petitioner. He further submits that petitioner was allocated to the State of Chhattisgarh and he joined at Raipur in the month of December, 2000. He also submits that within a span of 4 years he has been transferred regularly at an interval of around one year. He also submits that the petitioner has only 1½ year for his retirement. Learned counsel for the petitioner has fairly stated that the petitioner has been relieved and the reliever has joined. He also submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 10 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within six weeks from the date of receipt of the representation.

It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently M.W.P.No.2727/2004 also stands disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
